Dear [REDACTED]

STATINTL

Would you be able (willing?) to visit U.K. sometime in October or November? I'm teaching a seminar on "Dynamics of Politics in Communist States" this Fall, with nine graduate students, 8 of whom are in a program aimed at government/business employment (The Patterson School of Diplomacy and International Commerce). They have expressed interest in visits from analysts in communist politics, and you top the list. Thus, you need not prepare a "public lecture". Instead, we'd arrange for a visit to the seminar and a lunch with advanced students and faculty.

I can guarantee a reasonably pleasant time and knowledgeable students, plus (of course) I'm not a bad tour guide. It might be a nice vacation for you and your wife. The date of your visit can be flexible, although Tuesday and Thursday mornings are the meeting times for the seminar. There are direct flights from D.C. on Eastern.

Please call or write as soon as you can. My direct office phone is 606-258-8189. Thanks.

Best regards,

Daniel N. Nelson
Assistant Professor
